

All-Party Parliamentary Group on Obesity

Inaugural Meeting of the All-Party Parliamentary Group on Obesity

16:30, 14th January 2020, Wilson Room, Portcullis House, House of Commons

Agenda

- Welcome
- Election of Chair and Officers:
 - Mary Glendon MP, Labour, Co-Chair and registered contact
 - Baroness Jenkin of Kennington, Conservative, Vice Chair
 - Baroness Walmsley, Liberal Democrat, Vice Chair
 - Jim Shannon MP, DUP, Vice Chair
 - Dr James Davies MP, Conservative, Vice-Chair
 - Lord Brooke of Alverthorpe, Labour, Vice-Chair
 - Philip Dunne MP, Conservative, Member
 - Sharon Hodgson MP, Labour, Member

- Confirmation of the name and purpose statement of the Group

To call for the Government to prioritise and drive increased investment and resource into both the prevention and treatment of obesity.

The Group will have a focus on developing and promoting an optimum patient pathway for obesity and generating a public policy environment in which it is recognised by politicians and the NHS that obesity needs to be a priority.

- Income & Expenditure

The attending members confirmed the financial statement of the group. The supporters were named as Novo Nordisk, Medtronic and Johnson & Johnson. The secretariat was named as PB Consulting.

- AOB

The Group expressed their thanks to former co-chairs of the APPG, Andrew Selous MP and Eleanor Smith for their work and commitment leading the Group in the previous Parliament.